Spicy Thai Peanut Sauce

Peanut butter, soy, sesame and fresh ginger blended smooth.

MAKES ABOUT 2 3/4 CUPS

INGREDIENTS

1 cup	smooth peanut butter
1/4 cup	soy sauce or tamari
1/4 cup	toasted sesame oil
3 tbsp	rice vinegar
2 tbsp	fresh ginger, chopped
2 tbsp	garlic, chopped
1 tsp	hot sauce
1 tbsp	hoisin sauce
1 tbsp	fresh lime juice
3/4 cup	water

METHOD

1. Put everything in a food processor. Blend until completely smooth, stopping to scrape down the sides a few times so no peanut butter hides at the bottom, about 1 to 2 minutes.
2. Taste and adjust: more hot sauce for heat, a squeeze of lime to brighten, or a splash of water if it's thicker than you want.

NOTES

- Use tamari to make it gluten-free; check the hoisin too, since many brands contain wheat.
- "Oriental sesame oil" in older recipes means the dark, toasted kind, not plain cold-pressed sesame oil.
- The sauce firms up in the fridge. Loosen with warm water, a spoonful at a time.
- Keeps about 1 week refrigerated in a sealed jar.
- Good with satay, cold noodles, spring rolls, or thinned as a slaw dressing.
